Where is the building which is now proposed to be sold by auction? Is it the house which had been purchased for about Rs 5000 in 1906 (for shifting the route. vide the orders on para 13 of the file no 202 of 1907). Is this building in good condition and is there any information about its present market value

The building now proposed to be sold is the building bought in 1906 for Rs 5000. It is more worth this amount if it is in any where else except Seringapatam. It is difficult to fix its present market value. Being well situated it is

There is an idol of Krishna in the old Mutt building and when it was proposed that it should be removed to the new building the Swami said that he would prefer to leave it in its old place and to put up a new Mutt building. He was informed that in that event the bungalow of the Rajpramukha would have to be sold. He replied that he hoped that there were offers of Rs 5000, the price paid for it and that it might be sold privately for this sum or if there was a likelihood of selling not less than this sum by auction. I put-asked the Dewan to tell the Commissioner of Income-tax not to levy tax upon that it should not be sold for less than Rs 5000 —

The Assistant Collector held the sale on the fixed date when one Chaplain Siddaiya became the purchaser for Rs 3200 which was the highest bid offered and he paid the price immediately. The Commissioner recommended the recommendation of the S. D. O that the sale may be confirmed. On 23 October 1919 i.e two days before the date fixed for the sale, Mr. J. Lakshmi Narasimma Das, D. that the result should be reported to Government for orders. This necessarily implies that it was clearly intended that the sale was to be subject to confirmation by Government.

That the bidders at the sale have also been given notice that the sale would be subject to confirmation by Government is evident from the last para of the Notification dated 25/9/14 issued by the Auditor of Seniga Patam which clearly says that the bidder should not enter into possession until the sale is confirmed by Government. It has to be admitted that the wording of this para is not so explicit as it might have been, but it appears to be sufficient to have the legal effect of making confirmation by Government a condition precedent to the sale becoming absolute. It is also clear that the auction purchaser that the sale proceedings would be submitted to Government for orders.

I am therefore of opinion that Government cannot be bound to accept that bid and confirm the sale.

But there is the possibility of some contention being later on put forward by the auction purchaser of the kind referred to by the Financial Secretary) such a contingency could be avoided by inducing the purchaser to take back the purchase money deposited by him. Whether this could be done may be ascertained unofficially from the Auctioneer. I believe there would be no difficulty in adopting this course but if necessary in which case effect could easily be given to the wishes of the Government to the effect that the property should not be sold for less than Rs. 5,

My dear Mr. Venkatagiriya Iyer,

I am informed that the sale of such of the Sri Vijayaraja Swami Matt buildings as have not taken place on the 25th and am also hereby informed that the price it would fetch would be very low personal drawn to me.

I may in this connection invite your attention to the request made by the Sri Swamy Gavaru that the buildings should be sold by auction & that if not the sale at a price higher than 50000 Rupees the matt had paid for the buildings

I expect this may be made a Condition precedent to effecting the sale and that the sale may be made subject to the confirmation of the Court in the Supreme Court of It may be seen that the matter has ceased to have any pressing importance.

Since writing this the fishermen of Salvador is away at Hongkong and there has been a sort of reconciliation between the two factions and the Govt. of Siam seems to settle affairs

Yours truly

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No.C.122 of 1919-20/Muzrai dated the 18th November 1919, submitting a report regarding the auction sale of the new Vyasaraya Matt building at Seringapatam, I am directed to state that as the building was purchased for Rs.5,000/-, Government are of opinion that the bid of Rs.5,200/- obtained for it at the auction sale is inadequate and that in the interests of the Matt the sale of the building for this amount ~~may~~ should not be confirmed.

2. ~~But~~ In view of the fact that the building is said to have somewhat deteriorated since its purchase and to be in need of repairs, Government ~~would be prepared to part with it for~~ has no objection to accept Rs.4,000/-, which they consider to be a fair price for it in its present condition, and I am accordingly to request you to be so good as to enquire and report if the auction purchaser is prepared to pay this amount, i.e., Rs.800/- in addition to Rs.5,200/- already deposited by him in which event the building will be sold to him for this amount. If he should be unwilling to do so, the sale may be treated as cancelled and the money paid by him refunded to him and a resale held with Rs.4,000/- as the upset price ~~and earnest money thereof~~ being kept to ~~see that~~ no bid for less than this s being ~~is~~ accepted. It may be mentioned in the sale proclamation that the property will not be knocked down if the highest bid is below ~~Rs.~~4,000/-.

3. I am ~~therefore~~ to request you to take necessary action accordingly and report the result for the orders of Government at a very early date.
